

VERY VIOLENT

Northern, the Insane Man, is Quite Dangerous

Bit Sheriff Bainbridge in the Arm This Morning—Injury Not Serious.

While Sheriff Bainbridge and George Conrad were assisting Dr. Wooden to inject some medicine into the arm of Josh Northern, the insane man at the jail this morning, he bit Sheriff Bainbridge in the arm almost breaking the skin and badly bruising that member. The wound was prevented from being of a more serious nature by the fact that the sleeves of a heavy coat, shirt and undershirt were between the arm of the sheriff and the teeth of his vicious prisoner.

Dr. Wooden is treating the prisoner, who is held here awaiting the action of the superintendent of the insane hospital on the application for Northern's admittance to the asylum, sent a few days ago, and the doctor undertook, with the assistance of Messrs. Conrad and Bainbridge, to give the prisoner a hypodermic injection, it being impossible to get him to take any medicine in any other way. Conrad held the feet of the patient and the sheriff was at his head, and the patient was thought to be under control when by a sudden and supreme effort he raised his head far enough to get his mouth to the arm of the sheriff and closed his teeth upon the arm with such force as to cause much pain, and it was with quite an effort that his head was forced to the floor and he was made to let loose of the arm.

Dr. Wooden examined the wound and rendered such treatment as necessary, but said that inasmuch as the teeth had not come in contact with the arm, the wound was not of a serious nature.

Northern is unquestionably the most violent insane man who was ever placed in this jail. He will not eat or drink and resists any attempt to administer food, water or medicine. He is handcuffed and strapped to prevent him from tearing his clothes away and from inflicting personal injury to himself or his attendants. He imagines that persons are attempting to injure him and is first of a prayerful and religious mood and next in a fighting and cursing condition.

He talks in an incoherent manner of many of the citizens. He is, upon recommendation of the physicians kept in seclusion, and no one is allowed to see him except the attendants.

The overcrowded condition of the hospital at Richmond makes the time of his admission very uncertain, but the authorities are very anxious to get him there. They have as yet received no response whatever, to the application for admission.

THE INITIAL TEST

Springfield, Ill., May 11.—Developments of today clearly foreshadow the organization of the Republican state convention, which convenes here tomorrow, by the combined forces of Governor Yates, Colonel Frank O. Lowden and Congressman Vespasian Warner. The existence of the combination came to light when the state central committee met to hear the contested cases for the purpose of determining which of the contesting delegates shall sit in the temporary organization. The combination, it is admitted, will be able to control the seating of the contesting delegates, temporarily and permanently, as the Yates-Lowden forces will have fifteen of the twenty-five members of the credentials committee. While the alliance at present is confined only to organization, it is admitted that the attempt will probably be made to apply it also to the nomination of the gubernatorial candidates. If this is successful the nomination will go either to Yates or Lowden. Congressman Cannon will be both temporary and permanent chairman of the convention.

RESTRAINING ORDER

Bettie L. Wise Files Suit for Divorce, and Prevents Disposal of Property.

Through her attorneys, Watson, Tittsworth & Green, Mrs. Bettie L. Wise, of Falmouth, has instituted proceedings in the Fayette Circuit court at Connersville for a divorce from her husband, William H. Wise, and also prays that she be granted the custody of their three children, a suitable allowance for alimony and a temporary restraining order to prevent the sale of some personal property owned by William H. Wise to Edward and Oliver McGraw, who have bargained for its purchase.

The charge in the complaint is cruel and inhuman treatment and abandonment. The plaintiff charges that her husband is an habitual drunkard, and that while in an intoxicated condition he has more than once threatened her life. He has also failed to provide for plaintiff and her children since they separated in March of this year.

Mr. Wise was for a number of years engaged in the retail merchandise business in Falmouth, and is still the owner of a small stock of goods estimated to have a value of $300. The restraining order is sought to prevent him from disposing of this stock.

Mr. Tittsworth was at Brookville yesterday and procured a temporary restraining order from Judge Swift.

WOODWARD FREE

Authorities of Julietta Would not Come After Him.

John T. Woodward who failed to regain his freedom by a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Morris yesterday has been turned loose.

When notified that the court here had decided that the Julietta authorities were entitled to the custody of Woodward, the sheriff notified them of the same, and to come and get him whereupon they replied that they had come after him once and would not do so again, upon which statement, the sheriff turned the man loose, and he proceeded on his way happily.

EVIDENCE BEGUN

Jury Has Been Secured in the Gillespie Case.

Rising Sun, Ind., May 11.—The jury which will try James Gillespie as principal and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Barbour and Mrs. Belle Seward as accessories for the assassination of Miss Elizabeth Gillespie, the twin sister of James, was completed last evening, and the presentation of evidence began today. The panel is composed of August Grave, David H. Gibson, W. J. Spalding, William Ward, Albert L. Pate, Hugh French, Oscar Jones, Wm. J. Powell, David Bailey, H. W. Newman, Geo. Riegan and Martin Scranton. All are farmers except Ward, a lumberman, Jones, a grocer, and Powell, a wharfmaster. Jones is the only one residing in Rising Sun.

While most of the four-score who were excused were relieved on account of their opposition to hanging women, there was one excused because of former associations with the Gillespie and Barbour families. He is distantly related to the latter and had been an old suitor of Elizabeth. His explanation created quite a scene in the courtroom. Mrs. Margaret Gillespie, mother of the victim and one of the defendants, sits with her children in court. While her sympathies were always with Elizabeth during the troubles that existed for years, she is now doing everything in her power for those who are on trial. Shay and Cogan of Cincinnati and Marcus R. Sulzer of Madison, have been added to the array of counsel for the defense.

In January of this year there were eighty-nine foreign firms doing business in Japan. Of these forty-one were joint stock concerns and forty-eight partnerships, with an aggregate capital of 1,404,465,804 yen, of which 1,376,131,629 was paid up.

Russia and Japan Threaten The Peace of the World

By Rev. W. MONTAGUE GREER of New York

THE scandal is not so much that Japan and Russia are at death grips, but that two such nations should be in existence. These nations stand for the unfinished business of the church, and their struggle is threatening the peace of the world. All the nations are watching and waiting—and for what? To secure an "open door"—for the religion of Christ? Oh, no! Preparing for the ultimate partition of China. We are too ready to install the god Mammon to take the place of the oriental gods, where the cross should have been erected long ago.

NEAR THE CITY

Grade Construction Gang Almost Inside the Corporation

The gang of workmen who are building the road bed for the I & C. traction line, near this city, are rapidly extending the work nearer and nearer. The fruit trees in the orchard on the Posey stock farm which were on the company's right of way have been cleared away, and the intervening fences across the barn lots and other inclosures of the farm through which the road passes, have been torn away and the road bed has been joined to Seventh street and constructed through the orchard and barn lot for a distance of one hundred feet or more.

Another gang of men are excavating a short ways beyond the orchard in a pasture, for the stone abutments for the bridge which will span the branch at that place.

Thirty horses and mules and about fifteen men are being used in the grading of the road bed. Some of the men are now engaged in cutting down a couple of hills west of the branch where the bridge is being built.

The cutting is being done by a large excavating machine which automatically lifts the dirt and loads the wagons, and which is drawn by twelve head of horses and mules and by five or six men.

The machine plows up the dirt, lifts it, and throws it into the wagon which is driven along beside it. The wagons never stop in loading or unloading being so arranged as to automatically unload themselves. At this rate the machine cuts down about eight inches of dirt on every round, and the dirt is transported and dumped in the valleys where the road bed is being built up. The grade is being made at the rate of about twenty feet an hour at that point.

From the minute the dirt is first plowed from the ground it is never touched by the shovel until it is finally dumped at the end of the road bed, where a man is stationed to spread it and to level it up properly.

This work is interesting and is worth the walking out there to see. Quite a number of town people have visited the place and all are surprised to see the labor saving machines work.

The grade, it will be remembered, is being made about as level as the ordinary steam railway which necessitates the moving of thousands of yards of earth.

WILL VISIT NEW CASTLE

Knightstown Will Turn Out En Masse Next Friday.

[Knightstown Journal]

There is weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in Knightstown today. Sheriff Christopher swooped down from New Castle last evening with a basketful of subpoenas for three hundred and fifty signers of the remonstrance.

It was too big a job for him to tackle alone, so he drafted Emory Jackson into the service and the good work is going merrily on.

It's hard to tell who the fellows are, for all of a sudden every fellow and his brother has some business to transact at New Castle Friday.

Anyway they want to see the town, how it has grown, etc., etc.

Some of the non-signers are having a picnic with the fellows who signed; but a few of them laughed too soon. Several of them were subpoenaed by King Alec's henchman for what nobody knows.

Some are mad and some are glad and some don't care at all. But they'll all go.

Shot Four Times.

[Knightstown Journal]

Shot four times by a discharged employe who quarreled with him, W. W. Wilson, of Martinsville, a brother of James Wilson, of this city, township trustee, narrowly escaped death.

Mr. Wilson is a prominent contractor. He was shot by Charles Lafountain, an employe whom he had discharged. The latter claimed $15 was due him, and in a quarrel that ensued Lafountain shot at Wilson four times, inflicting wounds in the neck, left side and head.

J. M. Wilson went to Martinsville today to see his brother, who is well known here.

Defendant Had No Fear.

Belleville, Ill., May 11.—A test for poison in food was made in Justice Cannaday's court, which resulted in the acquittal of John A. Fletcher, who was arrested and charged with having prepared the edibles to cause the death of members of his household. The justice's test consisted in having Fletcher eat a dish of beans and drink a cup of coffee submitted as evidence. The test was suggested by Fletcher's attorney, who said that he was willing that his client should prove his innocence in this manner. Fletcher ate the beans and swallowed the coffee, but showed no signs of illness and was discharged.

Will Contest Brannock Law.

Columbus, O., May 11.—The supreme court has refused to permit the filing in that tribunal of a suit in mandamus to test the Brannock district local option law for municipalities and the proceeding will have to take its regular course through the lower courts. Later suit was filed in the common pleas court of Franklin county to enjoin the elections already ordered under the law in Columbus. The court refused to grant a temporary restraining order, but will consider the points raised on the constitutionality of the law.

Suicide at World's Fair.

St. Louis, May 11.—Captain Walter Allen of St. Louis, connected with the World's Fair Jefferson Guards, and a brother of "Private" John H. Allen, national World's Fair commissioner from Mississippi, committed suicide last evening by shooting himself through the heart in a room in the dormitory of the Washington University, now utilized by the exposition. He left a note stating that ill-health had driven him to commit the act. His wife and two children survive him.

RUSSIANS LOST HEAVILY

On the Sea Admiral Toga Keeps His End by Bombarding Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—It is persistently rumored that there has been a big fight near Mao-Tien-Ling pass between the Russians and General Kuroki's army. The Russians, it is said, lost heavily, Lieutenant General Zassaltch being among the killed.

Tokio, May 11.—A high angle bombardment of Port Arthur is proceeding.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—The most important official news from the front up to this hour is that telling of the complete re-establishment of railroad and telegraphic communication with Port Arthur, though how it was brought about and whether a battle was necessary to accomplish it are mysteries which Viceroy Alexieff failed to clear up.

The elation of the authorities, a natural consequence of this achievement, is sobered by official dispatches showing the activity of the Japanese in eastern Manchuria. Kuang Gen Sien, fifty miles northeast of Feng Wang Cheng, was occupied by the Japanese April 5. This enables an advance along the bad roads to the flank either at Liao Yang or Mukden. The territory between the main road to Feng Wang Cheng and the river Tayang has been penetrated by such a strong force of Japanese as to lead to the suggestion that another army has landed at Takushan, of which the outside world has not before heard.

The activity of the Japanese, however, has been expected and therefore has not diminished the satisfaction felt at the opening of communication with Port Arthur. The Slav swings from pessimism to optimism as quickly as a pendulum, and Viceroy Alexieff's dispatch has produced a feeling among the people that the defeat of the Yalu and the interrupted communication with Port Arthur should not have been taken so seriously; that General Kuropatkin never had any intention of making a stand on the Yalu; that the attempt to cut off Port Arthur was an absolute feature of the enemy's plan of campaign and was bound to occur sooner or later, and that the Russians should be thankful that they had time to prepare for the defense of Port Arthur until General Kuropatkin could relieve it.

The people naturally wish for more details concerning the re-establishment of communication with Port Arthur. All they know definitely is that the railroad has been repaired and that at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the first dispatch passed over the reconstructed telegraph lines. There probably has been some fighting, but whether with Japanese vessels or with the troops north of Pitsewo is not known, nor have the whereabouts of the Japanese landed on the southern part of the Liao Tung peninsula been definitely established. It is safe to say, however, that no engagement of importance has occurred in order to re-establish communication. Undoubtedly news of such a victory would be made public promptly, owing to the state of the temper of the people today.

BIG BATTLE EXPECTED

Disposition of Forces Renders an Engagement Imperative.

London, May 11.—So far no confirmation has reached London of the reported battle near Liao Yang. According to telegrams from Shanghai General Kuropatkin is making a general concentration of troops at Mao-Tien-Ling pass, where the next great battle is expected to take place.

A correspondent at Tien Tsin considers that the procedure of the Chinese government requires careful observation. He says he does not desire to appear as an alarmist, but he thinks that China's military activity and the accumulation of funds at Peking are entirely unconnected with the Russian scare and that the powers would be wise to strengthen their positions unobtrusively and to watch every movement closely.

A correspondent at Shan Hai Kwan says that the Japanese first army from the Yalu river already is threatening the Russian position at Hai Chang. The second army, marching in three divisions in order to co-operate with General Kuroki, has defeated the Russians near Wufung Tien with great loss, the correspondent says. He adds that the Japanese artillery was splendidly handled. A Tokio correspondent declares that Port Arthur will be bombarded with heavy guns and that a concentrated assault will be made on a well-known vulnerable point in the defenses.

Hoosier Kills Wife and Self.

Albuquerque, N. M., May 11.—Herman S. Itwedel shot and fatally wounded his wife and killed himself with a bullet from the same revolver. Domestic trouble was the cause of the tragedy. Both were health-seekers, and came here two years ago from Whiting, Ind.

An Unfounded Rumor.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—An official investigation shows there is no truth in the report that the Vladivostok and Port Arthur squadrons have effected a juncture after a naval battle in which both squadrons suffered losses.

An Infamy.

Low Wheat Yield Promised.

Washington, May 11.—Returns to the chief of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture made up to May 1 show the area under winter wheat in cultivation on that date to have been about 27,083,500 acres. This is 4,932,700 acres or 15.4 per cent less than the area sown last fall and 5,427,000 acres, or 16.7 per cent less than the area of winter wheat harvested last year. Of this abandonment Indiana reports 904,000.

Connected Up Again.

A HOT SHOT

Indianapolis, May 11.—A lot of "mud slinging" has been going on during the fight for control of the Indiana delegation to the Democratic national convention. John W. Kern startled the Hearst people by declaring that Hearst is not Bryan's candidate and that Hearst was open to censure for the alleged corrupt methods he is employing to carry the state. Judge McCabe of Williamsport, replying to Kern for the Hearst men, had this to say: "While showing virtuous indignation against the Hearst people for their supposed methods, Mr. Kern overlooks the fact that he himself has accepted appointment as a delegate at the hands of Tom Taggart, backed by as corrupt methods as ever disgraced the fair name of Marion county. In the accomplishment of this outrage, life-long Democrats were intimidated, disfranchised and ballots stolen. The men who do this kind of politics are mercenaries and must be paid. Who paid them? Surely not the Hearst people. Mr. Kern would not use money in this way. Is it possible that Tom Taggart or any of his henchmen would do it? Why is it that the reorganizers are unable to find one man as a suitable candidate out of the 6,500,000 loyal Democrats who supported Mr. Bryan, but insist on naming a man who cannot or will not make good the claims of his friends to loyalty and regularity?"

Mayor Fogarty of South Bend is one of the conspicuous figures in the convention crowd here today. He has not been in Indianapolis frequently, so he was a stranger to most of the politicians who turn up here whenever there is anything going on. Fogarty is a pleasing looking man and is evidently a very good mixer. He left the impression that he would be a good candidate for governor, and stranger things may happen than his nomination. He is a union bricklayer, but a man of considerable education and ability, and he is regarded as a strong candidate by many of the party leaders, who think this would be a good time to make a special appeal to the laboring classes. Fogarty says he is here looking over the ground and that he has not fully made up his mind what he will do about running. He says he is receiving many letters from throughout the state urging him to accept the nomination.

The Taggart following has agreed on the following slate for the state convention tomorrow: Permanent chairman, Alonzo Greene Smith, Indianapolis; permanent secretary, L. G. Ellingham, Decatur; sergeant-at-arms, Elliott Hooton, Indianapolis; delegates at large, John W. Kern, Indianapolis; B. F. Shively, South Bend; Chairman W. H. O'Brien, Lawrenceburg; Major G. V. Menzies, Mount Vernon. The Hearst slate follows: Permanent chairman, James McCabe, Williamsport, or Henry Collierick, Fort Wayne; delegates at large, James McCabe, Senator L. V. Ulrey, Fort Wayne; Mayor John W. Holtzman, Indianapolis. The fourth member has not been agreed on. Smith declared today that he accepted the nomination for permanent chairman, with the understanding that each side is to be treated with perfect fairness.

Congressman James E. Watson of Rushville was here for a short time today. He is taking life easily at Rushville, recuperating from the hard work of the last session of congress. Since he delivered the keynote speech before the Republican state convention there has been much talk of him for the United States senate in case Senator Fairbanks should be elected vice president. When asked today if he would be a candidate he said: "I would be a candidate if Congressman James Hemenway were not a candidate. He is a candidate and I am for him first and last, and I expect to ask all my friends to work for his success." This is the first open statement that Hemenway is a candidate. If he should not be, then it would not be surprising if Watson should be brought into the race.

An Evil Plot Exposed.

St. Louis, May 11.—The grand jury has returned eight indictments against Mrs. Sophia Weinheirt, charging her with enticing young women from Germany to this country for improper purposes. The woman, who has been twice arrested on the same charge, said when first taken into custody that the girls were brought to this country by her to serve as waitresses in a garden for a World's Fair concessionaire. She now asserts that she had nothing to do with bringing them to this country.

His Luck Was Too Good.

Logansport, Ind., May 11.—Game Warden Smith of Logansport has arrested Henry Hadd of Kewanee for violating the provision of the law restricting the catch of black bass to twenty to a single fisherman in one day. Hadd caught 108, and if the law is enforced his collective fines will be $2,200. The game warden has fled but one affidavit, and is awaiting instructions relative to the remaining eighty-seven.

Submitted to Arbitration.

Lima, Peru, May 11.—Foreign Minister Pardo and Colombian Minister Tasso have signed a convention by which all boundary questions will be submitted to the arbitration of the King of Spain.

Big Sum for Bridges.

Indianapolis, May 11.—The county council has appropriated $350,000 for bridges in the city and county.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Eight hundred book binders in the shops of the Chicago Typothetae are on strike. It is stated that a British advance on Lhasa is now inevitable and that preparations to that end are now progressing. Two men were killed in the wreck of a south bound Adams Express special at Port Chester, N. Y., on the New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Dispatches from Shanghai say that the Tatar general at Mukden has declined to obey Viceroy Alexieff's order that the Chinese evacuate Mukden. It is believed that a portion of the Russian Vladivostok fleet has been successfully shut out and is now in the sea of Japan trying to evade the Japanese. An accident to a train from Port Arthur to Harbin occurred near Tieling. Thirty passengers were killed and fifty injured, and the permanent way was greatly damaged. All hope that the five men who were imprisoned on Thursday last in the burning Locust Gap mine, at Shamokin, are alive has been abandoned and the mine has been flooded to extinguish the flames.

ALL THE STATES AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Many Beautiful Pavilions and Pretentious Buildings Show Forth the Enterprise of American Commonwealths.

A beautiful city has grown up among the trees on the World's Fair grounds at St. Louis. It has nothing to do with the immense exhibit palaces, but is a thing apart. The houses in this new city are of various styles of architecture. Some are palatial in size and appearance, while others look merely cozy and inviting. Never before have so many notable and historic buildings been constructed in one group. This new city might be called the City of the States, for the houses included in it are the state buildings at the Fair.

The city is not compact, but somewhat straggling, as befits the picturesque of the view. Yet there is nothing suggestive of a Stringtown-on-the-Pike about this city, for the grounds surrounding each of the houses are beautified with gardens typical of the state represented.

All the states are to be represented at the World's Fair. This means a great deal, a shining triumph for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and furnishes another illustration of the fact that this Exposition's completeness is the marvel of the age.

Fifty-one states, territories and possessions of the United States have taken the steps necessary to participate in the World's Fair on an important scale. But two states were still outside the fold at the last report, and in each of these was a well defined movement in favor of being represented at the Fair with buildings and exhibits. New Hampshire, the old home state, and Delaware are the states referred to. In New Hampshire a fund for participation is being raised privately by patriotic citizens, so that in the event of legislative inaction this commonwealth may be represented.

The states and territories are expending over $7,000,000 in their efforts to show off to best advantage at the Exposition. This is a million and a third more than was expended at the Chicago exposition by the states. In addition to this, large cities in many states will have municipal exhibits, the funds for which are not included in these figures. The municipal exhibit idea is entirely novel. From a number of the states there will be prominent county exhibits provided by special appropriation of county funds.

This City of the States presents a picture of surpassing beauty. Nature has done much to aid in the creation of the picture. Never before has any exposition been able to grant such advantageous sites for state buildings. The buildings are situated on a plateau about seventy-five feet higher than the level ground to the north upon which stand the main exhibit palaces. There are hills and ravines here and there, enabling the landscapists to lay out a most delightful pattern of roads and terraces and lawns.

The smallest of the state buildings is that of Arizona, which stands near the southeastern entrance to the grounds. One of the largest is that of Missouri, from the dome of which it is said that perhaps the very finest view of the Exposition may be enjoyed. This building is a palace in the Italian renaissance architecture, built at a cost of $105,000. Near by is the reproduction of the Cabildo at New Orleans, in which the Louisiana Purchase transfer ceremonies took place—Louisiana's state building. Ohio has a clubhouse of highly ornate design, in the architecture of the French renaissance. Illinois is prominent with a most pretentious structure, with wide verandas and a commanding cupola.

A description of each of the state buildings, with any detail, would more than fill a newspaper page. It is only possible here to hint at some of the interesting structures. California, for instance, has reproduced in exact size the famous old La Rabida Mission. Connecticut presents a replica of the Sigourney residence at Hartford, home of the poetess Lydia Huntley Sigourney in her time. This building is said to be the finest specimen of purely colonial architecture now standing. The New Kentucky Home, from the Blue Grass State, is a handsome clubhouse that would make some of the mansions along Fifth avenue, New York city, look insignificant. Beauvoir, the quaint old house which Jefferson Davis owned and occupied for many years, is reproduced by Mississippi. Its wide verandas or galleries give it a most inviting appearance. Washington's headquarters at Morristown, N. J., are reproduced by New Jersey. Virginia contributes Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson.

The state of Washington contributes a structure of unique design. It is called the Wigwam, five stories high, built of wood from Washington forests. The building is octagonal, with gigantic diagonal timbers rising from the ground and meeting in an apex ninety feet in the air, above which is built an observatory, from which a splendid view of the Exposition may be had. An elevator will carry visitors to the observatory.

New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Arkansas, Colorado, West Virginia, Indiana, Wisconsin, Texas and many other states are represented by buildings which cannot fail to arouse admiration. The Texas building is in the shape of a five pointed star, an appropriate idea for the Lone Star State. Iowa has a magnificent mansion, with classic porticoes and a central tower containing an observatory chamber. Kansas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma each uphold the growing reputation of the southwest for enterprise and fertility of resources.

CROP CONDITIONS

Indianapolis, May 11.—High temperature—the daily maxima considerably above the average for the season—with normal amount of sunshine and occasional showers at scattered places, prevailed in Indiana during the week just closed.

These weather conditions were in a high degree favorable to farming interests, and while there are still some complaints heard that the season is late, the progress made in preparing ground and planting spring crops, and the rapid germination and growth of plant life have gone far toward placing farming operations abreast with the time of year.

Wheat that was left standing and rye and clover have made good growth, but, with rare exceptions, wheatfields promise less than half a crop and, as indicated in previous issues of this bulletin, some fields of wheat were not plowed up solely because they had been seeded to clover.

The sowing of oats, which had been delayed in many localities on account of excessive moisture in the ground, was practically finished, and the early sown is up, shows good stands and is growing rapidly.

Good progress was made in preparing ground to plant corn and a little planting was done. A large acreage of corn will be planted.

Garden making and the planting of potatoes and the other minor crops were pushed vigorously during the week.

Peaches, where not all killed, and cherries, plums and pears are in bloom. The peach crop will be light, but other fruit promises well.

TROUBLE IN SIGHT

Hayti Is Reported to Be On Verge of Another Revolution.

GENERAL DISCONTENT

A Jimenez Partisan Who Is Under the Government Ban Has a Growing Following.

Port au Prince, Hayti, May 11.—Reports that a revolution has broken out in Hayti are false. The republic is quiet.

Cape Haytien, May 11.—While the rumor that a revolution has broken out in Hayti is false, there is general discontent in the republic and a revolution is momentarily looked for. General Albert Sainave, notwithstanding the warning given him by the Dominican government, has not withdrawn and continues to gather many followers on the frontier, where the Haytian government has ordered a heavy concentration of forces. Many partisans of General Antenor Firmin, the head of the last revolution, who is now in Paris, have crossed the frontier and combined their forces with those of Sainave.

A violent tumult among the soldiers at Port au Prince resulted in a general panic, and the rumor was then circulated that a revolution had begun.

President Nord has decided to resist energetically any movement looking to a revolution, and strong measures have been taken to this end.

There is a panic in general business circles and several large houses are likely to suspend. Silver has become very scarce and has resulted in a 75 per cent premium over paper money. The premium on gold is 420 per cent.

A dispatch from Cape Haytien of April 27, said that General Sainave, a Haytian refugee, had been warned to leave Dominican territory immediately. Under the auspices of General Jimenez, former president of Santo Domingo, it was asserted, General Sainave was preparing an expedition the object of which was the overthrow of the Haytian government. Several detachments of Haytian troops were sent to the frontier to check any movement on the part of Sainave. The same dispatch conveyed a report that an agreement had been entered into by the Haytian exiles then in the Dominican republic and on the island of St. Thomas to make a joint effort to re-enter Hayti and that trouble was imminent. People in Hayti, the dispatch said, were talking of the return to the republic of Generals Sainave, Fouchard and Lecompte, all former candidates for the presidency of the Haytian republics.

Adjourned Without Action.

Telluride, Col., May 11.—Judge Theron Stevens has adjourned the May term of court, as this county (San Miguel) is under martial law. No action was taken on the application to make permanent the injunction granted by the court at Ouray, restraining the Citizens' Alliance and mine-owners from interfering with the return of the deported miners to their homes in Telluride.

Miners' Strike Ordered.

Zanesville, Ohio, May 11.—As the result of a wage disagreement between the operators and miners of the Sixth Ohio district, 2,500 miners are ordered to go on strike next Monday. The operators asked a general reduction of 21 per cent in machine mining, while the miners would accept only 5.55 per cent from last year's scale, as agreed upon at the Indianapolis convention.

Too Quick on the Trigger.

Carbondale, Ill., May 11.—Mrs. Ham Cox of Murphysboro, a respected young lady, was shot and killed by her neighbor, Hank Cleland. The chicken house of Prof. E. H. Rogers, with whom Cleland resides, had been invaded by thieves for several days, and while watching for the thieves Cleland mistook Mrs. Cox in the darkness for the prowler.

Vindication Is Sought.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 11.—Representative Henry B. Vandercook has made a formal application to the superior court for vindication of the charges made against him by Lant K. Salsbury in the water deal case. Salsbury has testified that Vandercook received $60. The court and Prosecutor Ward completely exonerate Vandercook.

Killed at Railway Station.

Wooster, Ohio, May 11.—Rev. A. M. Collins, a temperance lecturer of Westerville, Ohio, was killed by a passenger train at Creston. He was crossing the track in front of a passenger train in an effort to reach the station platform when he was struck.

Congressman Mann Renominated. Chicago, May 11.—The Republicans of the second congressional district renominated James R. Mann, the present congressman from that district. There was no opposition to Mr. Mann.

STATE NEWS

EPIDEMIC OF SUICIDE

Bloomfield, Ind., May 11.—John Chuffman, sheriff of Greene county, committed suicide by shooting himself. He had considerable property, but is supposed to have been heavily indebted, especially as surety on notes, over which he brooded. He had been sheriff since Jan. 1, dividing the two years by agreement with A. F. Wilson, with whom he tied in the general election of 1902.

Hung Himself in Jail.

Peru, Ind., May 11.—Henry Quick, twenty-two years old, arrested as a horse-thief, eluded the vigilance of the sheriff and within half an hour after being locked in his cell he was a corpse, swinging by the neck from his cell bars. Two handkerchiefs supplied the need of a rope. He left a note addressed to his sweetheart, a young woman of Wabash, in which he bade her an affectionate farewell.

Chloroform Made His Quietus.

Anderson, Ind., May 11.—E. P. Williams, about seventy years old, of Portland, was found dead at the Columbia hotel. By his side lay a bottle half filled with chloroform. The body was removed to a morgue. There was no message found on his person.

This Followed Dissipation.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 11.—Jacob Taylor, who served in the civil war and was a $75 pensioner, frequently threatened suicide following seasons of dissipation, and he died after drinking carbolic acid. He was a man of family.

Despondent Over Sweetheart's Death.

Brazil, Ind., May 11.—Following the death of his sweetheart, Miss Lizzie Lehr, several attempts at suicide were made by George Moore, and he was finally successful, using carbolic acid. Mr. Moore was thirty-one years old.

Old Soldier's Suicide.

Wilkinson, Ind., May 11.—Oliver S. Allee, ill for a year or more, and who shot himself with suicidal intent, is dead. He was sixty-five years old. Allee served with an Indiana battery during the civil war.

Brought a Revolver Into Play.

Martinsville, Ind., May 11.—Differences in the adjustment of wages claimed to be due, led to the dismissal of Charles Lafountain, painter, by Wm. W. Wilson, contractor for the erection of the Hill-Kahn sanatorium, and Lafountain made a second demand, following it up with his revolver and firing four shots. Wilson was slightly wounded in the neck, face and side. Lafountain expressed regret over the failure of the shots to kill.

Rebekahs Will Meet.

Indianapolis, May 11.—The twentieth annual session of the Rebekah assembly of Indiana will be held in the grand lodge hall, I. O. O. F., Monday and Tuesday, May 16 and 17.

Japs Are Reconnoitering.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—Lieutenant General Sakharoff, commander of the First Siberian army corps, in a telegram to the general staff, says that the Japanese having occupied Feng Wang Cheng, are remaining there and are making reconnaissances of the main road to Liao Yang and both flanks of the road. General Sakharoff says the Japanese have occupied Huang Tiang Sia, fifty miles northeast of Feng Wang Cheng.

Will Build Panama Canal.

Washington, May 11.—Admiral Walker, president of the Panama canal commission, has received a telegram from John Findley Wallace of Chicago, general manager of the Illinois Central railroad, accepting the appointment of chief engineer in charge of the construction of the canal. Mr. Wallace will receive a salary of $25,000 a year.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Sparks-Denning bowling club, will meet tonight at the Pastime alleys.

George Brehm, the sketch artist, has a full sized sketch of James Gillespie in the Indianapolis Star. Gillespie has been very hostile toward photographers and newspaper men.

The Government report on the wheat crop, for this season, says that prospects are much brighter and that the recent warm weather has revived the wheat and started it growing nicely. The crop in Rush county, while not as large this year as in former times, will be very good.

A special to the News yesterday from Cambridge City, says that Mrs. Otto Huddleson, of that place, contracted blood poison seven years ago, and never recovered. Recently she heard of the cure of a similar ailment by the use of a madstone, and last week she went to New Castle for treatment. The stone adhered all right, but soon after she was seized with symptoms of hydrophobia, and it was thought that she was fatally stricken. She yielded to medical treatment, however, and is now out of danger, although a very sick woman.

The marriage of Miss Emma Cornelia Neal, daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Neal, of Wolcott, Ind., and Lewis Dunham Woodcock, of Oklahoma City, formerly editor of the Thorntown Enterprise, and at one time of this city, took place at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of the bride, who was beautifully gowned in cream silk and carried a shower bouquet of orange blossoms. The couple were unattended, and the ceremony was performed by the bride's father in the presence of close friends and relatives only. A luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock left for an extended trip, which will include points in North, East and West. They will live in Oklahoma City. Mr. Woodcock was at one time employed in this office, and we extend to the happy couple our congratulations and best wishes for their future.

In view of the fact that hundreds of farms are infested with rats to an extent never before known, and many farmers having sustained loss in the way of destruction of grain, the following advice by a well to do farmer may be of interest: "If you will sprinkle sulphur on your barn floor and through your corn as you gather it, there will not be a rat or mouse to bother. I have done this several years and have never been bothered with rats or mice. I have some old corn in my crib at present, and no rat or mouse can be found. In stacking hay or oats sprinkle on the ground and a little through each load, and my word for it, rats or mice can't stay there. A pound of sulphur will be sufficient to preserve a large barn of corn, and it is good for stock and will not hurt corn for bread."—Ex.

In an article of several columns, accompanied by a half tone, the Connorsville News announces the candidacy of E. E. Moore, editor of the Courier, for Joint Senator, and concludes the article as follows: "We hope and expect to see E. E. Moore nominated, and triumphantly elected to the office of State Senator for the counties of Fayette, Rush and Shelby, if the present apportionment stands, or Fayette, Union and Henry if we revert back to the old law. He is assured of the enthusiastic support of every Republican in the county, and he has many strong friends and supporters in all the other counties interested, or likely to be interested in the nomination soon to be made. We believe we are safe in saying the district could not put forth a stronger or more popular candidate to make the race for election in November."

Alvin Bowenaster, a wealthy farmer living near Cambridge City, lost a fine gold watch three years ago while fishing along Knollenfish river. Thursday, while a hired man on the Slanacker farm was plowing the same watch was turned up and was in as fine condition as when lost. The watch, after being wound up, started off all right and is keeping good time.

Early in the season considerable impatience was manifested by the farmers and others whose employment depended on the weather at the backwardness of the spring, but during the past week the weather has settled down to seasonable conditions and work of every kind is progressing well. From present indications, farmers will not be much later than usual with their planting and everything will doubtless come out all right in the end. The weather at this time is delightful and the gardens and crops so far put in are growing beautifully, and everything now portends a comparatively prosperous season.
